EXTRACT

"This is a small room, I know, but I do hope you will be happy sleeping here. The bed has a new mattress, so I am sure it will be comfortable for you," she said, with a smile.

"Don't you have anything bigger, I am used to a double bed you know? I am sure if you tried hard, you could make me even more comfortable," he said, in a soothing tone. He took a step closer to her, so their bodies almost touched and gave her an encouraging smile and a small nod of his head. She gave him a long, severe look and he started to think he had said the wrong thing, but then her face creased up into a hundred wrinkles as she grinned, showing him her gleaming white teeth.

"I tell you what, I do believe I can make you more comfortable," she said, closing the gap between their bodies so her breasts pushed into his chest. "I have a lovely big bed in my room and I would love the company of a handsome young man to keep me warm." She leaned forward and gave him a dry kiss on the mouth before he had time to speak, let alone move away.

"That's a very generous offer, and I will keep it in mind," he said, taking a step away from her. His heels banged against his case and he could move away no farther. "Don't forget my room key."

She turned back to smile at him. "Silly me, all this talk about beds has made me too excited," she said, holding up the key so he had to walk towards her to take it. When he approached her, she pushed her arm out wide, so he had to reach out for it. When he grasped the key in his hand, she wrapped her long arms around him in a tight embrace and pressed her mouth on his in a passionate kiss. He put his hands to her waist and tried to push her away, but she was too heavy and her arms were too strong. She was a powerful woman and continued to hold him in a strong grip as her tongue slipped past his lips and into his mouth.
