New York Times and USA Today Best Selling author Nina Bruhns hopes you enjoy this short holiday story!

All NYPD Vice Detective Nick Palladin wants for Christmas is a transfer to the K-9 Unit. He just needs to close this one last big case first—shutting down a human trafficking ring run by a scummy veterinarian. Which is why he's out on a street corner dressed as Santa Claus, ringing a bell and taking covert photos of the vet's customers, hoping one of them might be the link he needs to put the bastard out of business for good.

But Nick's irrepressible terrier has a very different Christmas wish. Airedale Zenon—cleverly disguised as Rudolph—has set his sights on a cute little perfumed fluff ball trotting his way...along with the adorably sexy lady holding her leash. When the two are suddenly accosted, well, what's a gentleman—canine or Santa—to do? Why run to the rescue, of course! And hope for the best holiday gift ever...true love.
