The girl is no more. Her handwriting is now formed; her interests are apparent. I can only imagine how many times she re-read this book while the soft southern nights covered her mountain deep in the Smokies. Before the big roads came, before TV, books were incredible windows to the world. I did not "charm" her; she was interested in gypsies. Hence, me. And to find out all these years later. How worth knowing! What a ride we have had. (51 years). We are both still gypsies at heart!
