At Your Beck and Call: Part 2 (Billionaire / Alpha) Ursula Istrati

Lizzie was bored with her love life, until she set up an online dating profile looking for a billionaire. After an incredible night with Richard Moncrief, Lizzie doesn't know if she'll ever hear from him again. Much to her surprise, she gets an even more exciting proposition from him. He comes up with a crazy and wild suggestion for their next date, but it might be too good to be true. Will she throw caution to the wind and accept his request?

This 4,000+ word erotica short story is the second part of a hot sexy Alpha Billionaire series, and contains content intended for mature adult audiences.

Excerpt:

Lizzie hung up the phone, and took another long sip of coffee. She knew she was going to have a hell of a time trying to distract herself today to stop from emailing Richard. She would just have to think of other things.

After failing miserably at the Saturday morning crossword puzzle, and her half-assed attempt at the daily Sudoku, she reached for her laptop. She would just quickly check email and browse the news, she promised herself, as the laptop buzzed to life. She would not email him!

She held her breath as she watched the loading screen of the dating site that she wasn't supposed to be signing in to. As the inbox finally popped open, she gave a little squeal of glee when she saw she had an email already from Richard.
