Seventeen-year-old Joanna Murphy has lost faith in her life. Vying for her mom's attention, she's resentful of her stepdad's intrusion to their family. Her best friend, Tommy, has no clue she's in love with him as he dates girl after girl without noticing how it tortures her. The final kicker, though, is God's sick joke to make her freakishly tall when everyone knows boys prefer petite girls. Then in a bizarre accident Joanna meets James, a breathtaking teen who appears to her after an unusual falling star sighting. Suddenly, her dream for an alien encounter becomes all too real. But when she finds her life has been made unrecognizable, she's forced into an explosive study of the original design for her life that just may have her regretting every wish she ever made.
