Country Road Robert John Sand

A plumber is returning from a late night call out in the country & off in the distance he sees the headlights of an oncoming car being run off the road. He rushes to the site, drags the woman driver & her young daughter out of the car just as it goes up in flames. They're badly hurt & he applies his knowledge learned in the military to save them. Then a cranky old lady living across from in the trailer court dies & leaves him her dog. Queenie is a huge aggressive female Harlequin Great Dane with a terrible attitude & a fear of nothing. Afraid to leave her alone, she begins traveling with him in the plumbing truck. The woman he saved turns out to be a TV soap opera star & owns a ranch west of the city. Through a neighbor she offers him a six month job taking care of her ranch. More attempts are made on her life & because of his background the local Sheriff offers him a job as do the Texas Rangers. Follow the story as he smuggles foreigners into the country to protect he & the woman as NYC mobsters hire assassins in their attempt to kill both of them & the dog.
