LET ME ENTERTAIN YOU Susan Langdon

Mandy Davis is facing a crisis. Her husband of eight years has walked out on her without a backward glance and her thirtieth birthday looms.

Mandy takes off to the Greek village of Thakos in Rhodes and is shocked to discover that the once vibrant holiday village, is barely surviving in a Greek recession.

Mandy decides to contact her old school 'friend' Janet Dobson, now agent to the stars in the UK, as she plans a music event in an attempt to revive the fortunes of the village.

When a volcanic ash cloud grounds all flights things are looking uncertain and with texts from an errant husband as well as an attraction to Greek hotel worker Costas, she feels like sailing off into the distance.

But just as her Greek dream looks set to become a Greek tragedy, she has a chance encounter with superstar Robbie Williams, who might just be able to save the day.....
