Living under the disappointment of failed expectations from her father, and a mother hiding a terrible secret, Naddie Mae Baines' seemingly perfect life in 2096 was shattered after being returned to Industra.

Abandoned and alone in a strange and cruel world of misfit children rejected by their parents, she fights her way through loneliness, rage, and sorrow, to embark on a perilous journey of exploration and freedom.

Along with a handful of other returned children fearing elimination, Naddie risks everything to escape the chains of Industra's mega-supply matrix and finds a life of meaning and purpose. With the help of a diary, a feather, and a photograph, she discovers her true identity and a lasting legacy.
