Boystown: The Return edRogers

James Hamilton is back and headed for Mexico. Those who have read my first book, "Boystown: The Cocaine Highway," will recall James running drugs and women, and having shootouts with a cartel. He tried to leave that life behind and eventually settled in Canada. But now a member of his family has been kidnapped. He may have to pay for the sins of his past life, but by God he won't be paying that debt alone.
