The Fairytale Curse (Magic's Return) (Volume 1) Marina Finlayson

Most people only wake up with hangovers after parties. Seventeen-year-old Violet wakes up with frogs falling out of her mouth whenever she speaks, and her twin sister CJ's dripping diamonds with every word. As if starting at a new high school wasn't hellish enough, they've been hit with a curse straight out of a fairy tale, with not a handsome prince in sight. Apparently Mum and Dad don't work for the military after all, but for a secret organisation dedicated to keeping the magical denizens of the world safely locked away. These are not the harmless fairies of children's tales, but powerful beings with a score to settle for their long years of imprisonment. Now the barriers are failing, and if Vi can't find answers fast the world will be overrun with vengeful fairies. And then there'll be no happily ever after for anyone.
