The wife of an esteemed pastor was in a desperate situation. Her husband could not stop cheating. He also could not stop treating her like the door-carpet immediately they left the premises of the church. At home, she was nothing and he barely showed any affection. She lost some weight, attended expensive seminars on sex and marriage. She stepped-up and changed her entire wardrobe. She complimented this change by submitting to several expensive cosmetics procedures. Alas, her husband did not even appear to notice. He did not observe any change nor offer a single compliment. Instead, he continued to swap his numerous girlfriends like designer suits. Nevertheless, to the congregation, they appeared as the first and powerful couple everyone wanted to emulate. This madam could not confide in anyone for even her best-friend had passed through the husband's thighs. Many are in this situation and it should not be. You have power and it is time you bring that braggart husband to need you as the desert needs water in the name of Jesus!
