King Edward had been voracious in his lust in his younger years, but now he amused himself watching others take their pleasure.

The king enjoyed nothing better for his entertainment than having a bawdy knight or three in his good graces sport with a soon-to-be-married maiden of the court for his pleasure and theirs.

The more beautiful, pure, and yet willing the maid, the better Edward liked it. But what lustful pure beauty would his courtiers drum up for the evening of his birthday? He hoped for their sakes, they had arranged something special.

This is a sizzling hot short story of about 7000 words.
