Good Morning Liriel Saarinen

Steve is having a rough morning. He's hung over, he can't remember much of the night before, and he's waking up on his idiot friend Mike's couch with a headache the size of... Well a very large headache, he's really having trouble thinking of metaphors.

Luckily, Mike's Step-Mom is eager to make him forget all about it, and anxious to make sure he feels much better, very soon. Seem's Mike has been very busy with a strange device that has come in to his possession, a device that allows him to make his Step mother believe, pretty much anything he wants.

Enjoy this straightforward first person story about poor self control, a hot young Milf, and a far too easy to use mind control device.
