For Nichole, life in Newark had been easy going for her thanks to her mother Tina. She went out of her way to make sure that her daughter didnt want or need anything. Being the type of girl Nichole was, she really didnt deal with a lot of people, that is until she met Sheniya. The two girls instantly clicked and became the best of friends. With them juggling everyday life experiences and graduation a few months away things seem to be going great for them until Ibn and Malakai enter their lives. Ibn and Malakai are two well known king pins in the streets of Newark and surrounding areas. They appear to have everything on lock and only focused on making money. When they hook up with Nichole and Sheniya enemies appear and began to cause havoc in their lives. When things began to unravel can the two couples pull together as a unit to handle the matter at hand? Or do they fall apart and turn against one another? Come take a ride and find out in, " In Love With A Street King."
