Ashanti, having witnessed her parents murdered in cold blood at the age of 6, was too scared to move or even fight for her family. Now as a young adult she feels like she has to fight for everything that belongs to her or else she'll lose it. Kenyon, on the other hand, fought night and day for his drug dealing father and drug addicted mother in hopes of restoring his dysfunctional family. Making a promise to God to do better than his father, if his mother would be healed, Kenyon lost his will to fight when his prayers fell on deaf ears. Along with his mother, went his belief in the man above and his trust in anything but the hustle. He meets Ashanti, and instantly they click. Embarking on a dangerous journey of love, they have many obstacles to overcome, such as backstabbing friends, murder and the law. Can Ashanti be the one that Kenyon needs to show him what it means to fight again? Does she have what it takes to be a rider?
