Fome de Todos Nos - How We Are Hungry (Em Portugues do Brasil) Dave Eggers

Em 15 contos, o escritor trata da fome dos seres humanos, que nao sabem bem o que desejam mas desejam e querem passar da superficie do mundo ainda que, humanos, tambem nao saibam bem como. Dois amigos criam uma relacao amorosa, por alguns dias, mesmo sabendo que ela nao tera futuro, e nem e tao desejada; uma mulher sobe a montanha Kilimanjaro em busca de um triunfo na vida, apesar de nao entender o que a levou ate ali; um senhor luta para que sua morte ocorra no meio de um evento festivo, repleto de conhecidos e desconhecidos.

Em "A Fome de Todos Nos", Dave Eggers continua a usar as viagens como metafora da busca, mas sem que ela seja obvia e se torne um cliché. E nos pensamentos e nos atos mais cotidianos que o autor mostra essa fome de que mesmo os personagens nao se dao conta em certos momentos. Suas vidas nao sao extraordinarias, e suas viagens tambem nao, ainda que possam parecer, a primeira vista. Mais do que isso, as viagens tem fim. Porem, no Egito, na Tanzania, na Escocia, na Costa Rica ou mesmo numa estrada na California, os personagens nao conseguem deixar para tras suas questoes, que lhes acompanharao aonde quer que eles vao. Apesar de terem seres humanos em busca de transcendencia, seja numa montanha ou numa visita ao amigo que tentou suicidio e esta no hospital, os contos de Eggers vao da ironia a melancolia, das historias curtas, emblematicas, e mesmo experimentais, a narrativas longas, com personagens construidos detalhadamente. As vezes, bastam duas paginas para falar sobre um homem no jardim, a espera da mulher; ou sobre uma mae em casa, a espera do filho adolescente. Quando nao estao sozinhos, os personagens criados por Eggers sofrem para se relacionarem. Sao personagens no limite, ainda que nada objetivamente grave lhes afete.
