This novel is written in honor of all single women who wants to live God's Word, but somehow, allowed the devil to intervene. You can change your life around. It isn't easy, but as you grow closer to Christ, you will reap the rewards. This novel tells about two women who did just that. They struggled through life looking for true happiness. It wasn't until they rejected the devil and gave their life to Christ that they went from sin to glory, and eventually got the desires of their heart.
