The Late Heiress: The Amberley Chronicles May Burnett

A mysterious drowning leads to unexpected romance ...

Lady Marian Colville was a great heiress, the only surviving child of a wealthy earl. Why was she not presented to Queen Victoria, or given a season like other girls of her class? Was she as sickly as her guardian claimed?

In the early summer of 1843, a newspaper reports that Lady Marian drowned in a small seaside resort frequented by invalids.

Thomas Seymour is applying for a post in the Home Office through the patronage of his Uncle, Lord Amberley. He is asked to clear up a small mystery: did the late Lady Marian write to a former Home Secretary that she feared for her life? The letter was regarded as a hoax at the time.

Thomas duly investigates, and finds far more than he bargained for ... nothing is what it seems, except the true love he encounters when he least expects it.

This is volume 8 of the Amberley Chronicles. It can be read as a standalone.
