Love

It has been immortalized in countless works of art and literature because it's the greatest of all human conditions...

It's happiness, excitement, anxiousness, nervousness, and even sadness all at the same time...

And most of all, it's that incredible force that can change and define our lives unlike anything else in the world.

In this collection, we bring together stories that will remind you of the emotions that come with matters of the heart—the overwhelming anxiety and excitement of confessing your feelings to a first love, the immeasurable happiness and contentment of finding your soul mate, the pain of unrequited love, and the bittersweet longing for a lost love.
