Keeping Promises: A Silver Springs Contemporary Series Novel Mrs. Gina Marie Coon

For the past eighteen months, Jordan Gray has raised her deceased sister's children alone. She loves and wants what's best for them. Unfortunately, her teenaged nephew doesn't care. Caleb is constantly in trouble, and each new infraction is worse than the last. With nowhere else to turn, she begins to search for the boy's unknown father, convinced that finding him will be the hard part. She couldn't be more wrong. Her intense reaction to the man is as exhilarating as it is bewildering. Surely, this former bad boy couldn't be the one God has chosen for her? When FBI Agent Carl Spencer learns that someone is using cyberspace to look for him, he does what he's trained to do – hunt the hunter. When the enemy turns out to be a pretty young woman, he's surprised, but that's nothing compared to the jolt that rocks his world when she delivers her news – he's a father. While Spence builds a relationship with his troubled son, he battles a strong pull toward the boy's virtuous aunt. Too bad she's not his type. Struggling with a mutual attraction seems challenging enough, until a new danger threatens to destroy them.
