THE LION'S DEN 3: UNLEASHED QYESHA SMITH

In this final installment of The Lions' Den, Robin has yet again gotten herself into a situation that she sees no way out of. Taken in the dead of night while her fiancé Adelphi is philandering with his assistant Chanelle, Robin endures a part of life she thought she would never be a part of. Sometimes it takes strength to get through difficult situations but is Robin built for this life or will she will she die trying.

Adelphi has more on his shoulders than he can handle, first Robin is missing, and now he has a more personal problem that comes up with his mother. How much more can he take. It's a good thing that Chanelle is by his side to get him through the tough times, but she isn't as good as she seems. There is always a motive when money or envy is involved.

Ron has been on the track to getting his life together. His mother came back into his life and trying to build a relationship that she left behind in the past. Now that Ron and Joni know that they are brother and sister, they work together to try to find Robin. When an unsuspecting woman comes into the picture, the whole world changes for Ron, Robin and Joni.

In the game of life, you win some, you lose some, and others just stay the same. This is the final installment of The Lions' Den. Take a ride to see how it all goes down.
