Circling the Sun by Paula McLain is a novelized memoir of Beryl Markham – the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic. McLain brought to light the adventurous and captivating story of a British-born, African-raised young woman's feats in horse training and aviation as well as her intriguing love affairs in a breathtaking setting in British East Africa – “before Kenya was Kenya.” Though the characters and places were real-life, dialogues and situations appearing in the book are entirely a work of fiction.

McLain was known for her novel, The Paris Wife, a fictionalized memoir of Ernest Hemingway's first wife, which was rewarded a New York Times Bestseller. Currently residing in Cleveland with her family, she continues to captivate the hearts of the readers with her novelized memoirs and collections of poetry.
