Letters - An Anthology Tammy-Louise Wilkins

For the duration of five most critical and unforgettable years, Tammy-Louise Wilkins chronicled her life, her musings, and her ever-brewing questions about the morality of things that are brought together in Letters - a collected assortment of voyages that form into a single story that details the twists, turns, turmoil, and thought-provoking moments in life. Wilkins shared her journey with the online world. It resonated with many and tugged at the heartstrings of those who could hardly fathom the emotion laced within the words that they read. In those five most critical and unforgettable years, Wilkins has been learning. Learning through her own utterances of which path she should step onto next. The question is; what exactly is the story she tells?
